Dear Faculty, Families and Friends,

Alice Butler has been a pillar of support for Catholic Education for over forty-five years. Prior to teaching at SJWCA, she served the children of Immaculate Heart of Mary, Queen of All Saints, Regina Pacis, and St. Agnes on DeGraw Street. Her contributions to the lives of young people are immeasurable.

While Ms. Butler has spent her career thus far as a classroom teacher, we are thrilled to announce that she will be changing roles in the upcoming school year. Ms. Butler has graciously accepted the position of Mentor Teacher and High School Admissions Counselor.

This new role will allow Ms. Butler to use all her years of experience in the classroom to support newer teachers with current pedagogy and alignment between instructional materials, schoolwide curriculum, and state standards. In addition she will continue to support our 8th-grade students in their High School Admissions process and teach the Algebra I class to high performing students.

While Ms. Butler is excited about her new role, she remains committed to her students and teaching her classes for the remainder of the year. Please join me in congratulating Ms. Butler on her new role for the upcoming school year!

Best,

Stephanie-Ann Germann
Principal
